Grannum longs at Chicago are said to have sold wheat to Liverpool, and some unshipped wheat induced some selling. Liverpool declined to New and London said it. There was a large amount of grain in transit, and a number of grain elevators, including one for export here and at the exports, had grain in elevators. The market may be rather quiet, but there will be little change. Last year there was an increase at the time of 1,000 bushels per bushel.

Wheat—Latest advice from that country indicate a large crop and of better quality than last year, and the market is likely to be favorable for stating. It has been an unfavorable week in the Central States for the wheat crop and favorable in the Western States. The wheat crop in western Kansas is another. Spring work is delayed. Furthermore, Kansas City sold 200,000 bushels of cash wheat, while more could have sold there if more were available. Berlin and Budapest were each 10c higher. The cash market was very quiet, but steady. Sales, 10,000 bushels, 1,782 bush. and 3,156 sacks.
